

Seated on the seat of having all rights, transform problems into solutions.

Beloved Avyakt Image, Mother, Father, BapDada's deeply loving instrument teachers, brothers and sisters of this land and abroad who are the decoration of the Brahmin clan, those who are always embodiments of experience and thereby make their foundation strong, who with your double light powerful stage change excuses into solutions and become embodiments of solutions, please accept Godly love filled with sweet remembrance.

Baba says: Children, this is the age of the flying stage. You Brahmin children have to do the work of flying and making others fly in this age. With your flying stage, overcome all the problems in such a way as though they were nothing. Nothing of down below should disturb you or create an obstructions. Let only the one Father always be merged in your heart and in your eyes. One Father and none other – always stay lost in this one love and only then will you easily be able to overcome the problems that are to come to you. Baba's children who are victorious jewels can never step away from any task, problem or person, but while carrying out any task, whilst facing any situation and being co-operative, you have an attitude of unlimited disinterest. At the time of problems, stay in the sea of a self-sovereign who has all rights and become an embodiment of solutions. Sometimes, your own old sanskars come in different forms as problems. In order to finish these, you have to emerge your sanskars of being a donor, a bestower of fortune and a bestower of blessings. These great sanskars will easily finish weak sanskars. "I am a master almighty authority soul" – by having this awareness, all problems will be experienced to be like a game. No matter how big a situation may be, it will become small. Tell me, sweet brothers and sisters, you have this experience, do you not?

Now, in the months of July and August, there were very beautiful waves of tapasya in all places of Madhuban. Thousands of brothers and sisters came to Baba's home and were very much refreshed. They made themselves full with all powers. On the 16th anniversary of our lovely Dadi Prakashmaniji, there was a special bhatthi of the couples. Many souls have taken sustenance from Dadiji and everyone has unending love for Dadiji in their hearts. Everyone visits Prakash Stambh with that pure feeling and together with those sweet memories, they remember the loving teachings given by Dadiji. Then, on the pure festival of Raksha Bandhan, unlimited service takes place in all the complexes. This is also a very beautiful and auspicious occasion to give everyone God's message. Now, in the month of September, especially in Shantivan, there will be conferences of all the Wings in which relatives and contacts souls, VIPs and IPs come to Baba's home and go back with many beautiful inspirations. After all this unlimited service, in the month of October, all of Baba's new and old children will come to the gathering to celebrate a special meeting with our dearly beloved Avyakt BapDada, and filling their aprons with many blessings, will continue to make everyone full. These days of the confluence age are very beautiful. This pure and powerful land of Madhuban makes everyone full with so many new experiences. Achcha.

I am sure all of you are healthy and fine. Lots of love and remembrance to all.

In Godly service,

B.K. Ratanmohini

Avyakt Signals – September 2023

Become free from problems, become an embodiment of solutions and make others this also.

1. BapDada's only desire is that reasons should now finish and only solutions should be visible. Problems should finish and things continue to be resolved. Therefore, do not speak of any excuses in terms of weaknesses, but find a solution. Now, transform the old language and the old ways, the language of carelessness and bitterness and become embodiments of solutions.
2. The more you become an embodiment of experience, the stronger your foundation will be. Then you will experience any type of obstacle or problem to be like a game. When any scene comes in front of you, in terms of the drama, all of that is a game. If you have this awareness, you will remain constant and there won't be any fluctuation.
3. Just as in lokik life, a mother makes her children strong by giving them sustenance through which they are able to face any type of problems, and always remain healthy and wealthy, in the same way, you elevated souls should become the world mothers, the unlimited mothers and make others so strong that they experience themselves to be destroyers of obstacles, full of power, and healthy and wealthy.
4. Mould yourself according to the time, problems and people, and always remain easy for your own benefit and the benefit of others. Even if you have to renounce your own name, sanskars and physical comforts, then renounce them and make your stage elevated. Always remain in your stage of being double-light and you will easily be able to overcome all problems.
5. This is the age for the flying stage. The duty of Brahmins is to fly and make others fly. Your real stage is that of the flying stage. Those who are in the flying stage will be able to overcome all problems in such a way as though nothing has happened. None of the things down below will disturb them or create obstructions.
6. Always keep the Father merged in your eyes and in your heart, and remain lost in the love of belonging to the one Father and none other, and then you will be able to overcome the tests, problems and waste thoughts that come as if you are drawing a line on water and pass with honours.
7. Always continue to move forward while remaining lost in the unbroken love for the Father. This unbroken remembrance will finish all problems, make you a flying bird and take you into the flying stage. BapDada now wishes to make all the children free from laboring and free from problems. When you children yourselves who are master bestowers of liberation become free from problems, then you will be able to become instruments to give liberation to many other souls.
8. I am jewel of contentment – let there always be the remembrance of the Father in your head. This is said to be the highest stage. Those who remain stable in this elevated stage overcome the things down below in such a way as though it is nothing. By doing this, the problems will remain down below and you will go up above. Always be an easy yogi, an easy effort-maker and an embodiment of easy attainment, and you will easily be able to overcome problems as big as the Himalayan mountains in one second on the basis of your flying stage.
9. While experiencing your combined form of "I and the Father", always experience your form of being the world benefactor through your constant good wishes, elevated feelings, elevated words, elevated vision and elevated actions, and you will be able to find a solution to all problems in a second. Always remember one slogan: I will not become a problem nor will I fluctuate on seeing any problems. I will remain an embodiment of solutions and give solutions to others. This awareness will make you an embodiment of success.
10. Those who are victorious jewels will never step away from any task, any problem or any person. However, while performing every action, facing every situation, and being co-operative, they will maintain their attitude of unlimited disinterest. They will never complain about others. At the time of problems, they will be seated on the seat of self-sovereignty and become an embodiment of solutions.

11. Surrender every moment for world benefit. When you remain busy in service at every moment and in every thought, when you don't have any time for anything else, Maya too will not have the time to come to you. The problems will be transformed into solutions. Problems cannot have the courage to come to the elevated souls who are the embodiment of solutions.
12. Constantly give donations and blessings through your thoughts, words and actions and the eclipse on the self will automatically finish. Set up the eternal "langar" (feeding souls continuously throughout the day). In order to finish the main sanskar that comes up as a problem in different forms again and again, now let your powerful sanskars of being a powerful bestower, a bestower of fortune and a bestower of blessings emerge. This great sanskar will automatically finish the weak sanskars. You have to become the instrument of support to show others the path and to give them the Father's treasures, and weaknesses will automatically be set aside.
13. Just as all of you have claimed full marks in the subject of love, in the same way, now prepare the rosary of those who are embodiments of solutions. To become perfect means to become an embodiment of solutions. Your Father Brahma – even those who brought problems to him forgot their problems. In front of the perfect stage, the problems are experienced to be childhood games. So, follow the Father and remain stable in your perfect form.
14. No problems can come to those who are master almighty authorities. Would an ant be visible if it were to come under an elephant's foot? So, these problems are also like ants in front of you maharathis. Consider them to be a game and a toy and you will remain happy. No matter how big something may be, it will become small.
15. The reason for any conflict is "I and you", "mine and yours". However, keep the Father in front of you and say, "My Baba" with your heart and any conflict or problem will easily be resolved. Always be free from obstacles and with intense effort, continue to experience the flying stage. The stage of being free from obstacles over a long time and a strong stage will easily finish all types of compulsion or dependency.
16. The stages of being a detached observer and being trikaldarshi – because both of these are the stages of a maharathi, no matter how fearsome a situation maybe or how big a problem may be, because your stage is high, the situation will seem very small. You will not experience it to be a big deal nor will you experience it to be fearsome.
17. When you consider yourself to be an immortal image, you will be saved from untimely death, from death and all problems. This is the only means of ending worries in your mind and mental problems – finish the awareness of this old body. By ending body consciousness, all adverse situations will automatically end.
18. In order to have liberation from the storms of your thoughts or from any other relationship, or when any type of obstacle or storm comes, be yogyukt and yuktiyukt. Until you become yogyukt, you will be full of problems. Yogyukt souls change storms into a gift.
19. Promise that no matter what type of problem comes, whatever is the excuse, I will not surrender myself to anyone else. Just as a seed is watered after it is sown, and only then does the tree become fruitful. In the same way, in order to fulfil the promise you have made, water of the company as well as courage is also needed.
20. When you have the Father's love in your awareness, then what are problems in front of the love of the Almighty Authority? There is so much difference between love and problems. One is like mustard seed and the other is like a mountain – there is this much difference. So, in order to become an eternal jewel, always keep with you the power and love of the Almighty Authority. Never consider yourself to be alone. Let there not be even one second in your life without your Companion.

21. In order to save all treasures, be tolerant. A tolerant soul will always be stable in the essence of knowledge and yoga and bring all expansion, problems and obstacles into their form of essence. Just as your time and energy are used up in going on a long road, in the same way, expansion is to overcome a long road and the essence is to take a short-cut. You go across both roads, but because one who takes a short-cut saves his time and energy, he is not hopeless or disheartened, but will always be smiling with pleasure.
22. Constructive souls will change reasons, excuses and problems into positive solutions. They will not consider any type of obstacle or problem or attack by Maya to be a form of attack, but will experience it to be like a game and happily overcome it. Their stage will always be stable and constant. They will never be afraid or come into fluctuation.
23. Maintain a balance of love and law, according to the time, but also feel love within the law. For this, become an image of soul-conscious love and you will be able to be co-operative in finding a solution to every problem. When correcting anyone also give co-operation, which means to be an image of soul-conscious love.
24. It is remembered that the pandavas melted on the mountains at the final moments, that is, they went beyond the influence of body consciousness and the world of sorrow and became stable in an elevated stage. In the same way, you children have to remain stable in your highest stage and watch the play of those down below as a detached observer and all problems will be transformed into embodiments of solutions. "What will happen? How will it happen? What will happen to me?" – there won't be any type of upheaval of such questions. Those who stay in such a stage become victorious jewels.
5. Day by day, problems are to increase, but even in that situation, let your stage be so powerful that the situations change with your stage. Let your stage not be based on the situations. Your stage can change the situation because you are the children of the Almighty Authority. How can the children of the Creator be dependent on the creation? You have to have your rights and not be dependent. To the extent that you hold onto your rights, accordingly the situations will change.
26. Use the power of transformation with the power of silence. Transform the negative into positive. No matter how many types of problems come in the form of Maya, with the power of transformation and with the power of silence, change problems into a form of solution. Change excuses into solutions. You children have received the power of transformation as an inheritance from the Father.
27. Children who always have zeal and enthusiasm cannot have any problems stay in front of them. Those who have zeal and enthusiasm can never be disheartened, they will always be happy in their hearts. Zeal and enthusiasm can change storms into a gift and a mountain into cotton-wool. Enthusiasm makes you experience any type of test or problem as a form of entertainment and so never allow your enthusiasm to decrease.
28. Now use your time for unlimited service and problems will automatically run away. Give the co-operation of power and virtues to the weak souls who are influenced by problems, give power to those who are powerless and blessings from them will become a lift for you. To always remain happy and to make others happy means to receive blessings and to give blessings. These blessings easily make you into conquerors of Maya.
29. The rays of the sparkle, intoxication and experience of the children who remain constantly absorbed and lost in God's love are so powerful that any problem is not only far away from them, but it cannot even raise its eyes to look at them. They cannot have any type of hardship.
30. To the extent that you stay in remembrance, so you will experience that you are not alone, but that BapDada is always with you. When any problem comes in front of you, have the awareness: "I am combined" and you will not be scared. With the awareness of the combined form, any difficult task will become easy. Hand over all your burdens to the Father and become light and you will always experience yourself to be fortunate and will continue to dance like an angel.
